North Carolina Land Agency.

HAVING ASSOCIATED MYSELF WITH GEN. J. H. LEMOINE, of the City of Richmond, Va., to whose card below I refer the public,

FOR THE SALE OF LANDS, MINES, &c.,

in North Carolina, I invite those persons in the state having such property for sale, to address me at Reidsville, N. C., and steps will be taken, at once, to call the attention of Northern capitalists to all such property.

D. W. COURTS.

Jan. 9th, 1868.

Virginia Central Land Agency.

I HAVE VERY RECENTLY PERFECTED THE organization necessary to conduct, on the largest scale, the business of selling Lands, Mills, Mines, Furnaces, Water-Powers, &c.

My partner, Colonel R. J. PAGE, is in charge of our office in New York. In Philadelphia and Baltimore, I have Associates of the highest respectability and responsibility.

And for the sale of Lands, Mines, &c. in North Carolina, I am associated with D. W. COURTS, Esq., of Reidsville, for many years State Treasurer of N. C.

The facilities this Agency offers for the sale of Lands are not surpassed in the South. In regard to Mines of all kinds, I have made contracts with parties in the cities South of this, who make that branch of the business a specialty, both in this country and Europe securing to me the widest possible field of operations, and in this city I have the aid and services of that accomplished Mineralogist and Assayer, Col. WILLIAM GILHAM, for the prompt analyses of all minerals that may be sent to me, thus determining the value of same, before they are offered for sale.

TERMS.—For selling lands, five per cent commission on all sales actually made, but no charge whatever, unless a sale is effected. For Mines, an additional contingent fee, the subject of contract in each case, and payable out of proceeds of sale.

Reference is made to public men generally throughout the state with most of whom I have the pleasure of being personally acquainted.

WM. B. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1868

State Conservative Convention!

It is resolved by the State Executive Committee of the Constitutional Union Party of North Carolina, that a State Convention of the party be held in the City of Raleigh, on WEDNESDAY, the 5th day of February, A. D. 1868, at 11 o'clock of that day.

It is confidently hoped that the friends of a Constitutional Union and civil liberty will be active in the effort to make the Convention the largest and most respectable that ever assembled in the State.

Let the Conservative people in every County of the State, where meetings have not been held, hold meetings at once, pass appropriate resolutions, appoint delegates and see that they attend the Convention.—The condition of public affairs demands the patriotic effort and co-operation of every good citizen, to save the country from impending danger.

By order of the State Executive Committee.

R. C. BADGER, Secretary.

January 4th, A. D. 1868.

THE PLOT THICKENS.

The evidence becomes more and more palpable, that the Congress is unchangably fixed in its purpose, that the Southern States shall not be "reconstructed," until that body is assured that their votes in the next Presidential election shall be cast for the Radical nominee, whoever he may be. We supposed that that object would certainly be gained in any event, under the Reconstruction Acts, as they have been and will be executed by the District Commanders. But the latest edition of the Radical programme shows most clearly that Congress is not sure of its game, so long as there is left to the intelligent and reliable voters of the South any choice in the matter.

It is true, if the intelligence and virtue of the South were left free to combat error and to expose the baseness and wickedness of the Radical measures and designs, we could not doubt the success of the Democrats and Conservatives in defeating them. But we are frank to confess, that, in all we have done to rally the opposition to Radicalism, we have not looked for success from any effort the Southern people could make themselves. We have only hoped to arouse them to make an indignant and honest protest against the injustice and tyranny of the Radicals, in the hope and belief that truth and justice would find their vindication in the "sober second thought" of the great masses of the North, which would deliver us from the chains which bind us and the abject ruin which threatens us.

The true Southern people have outlived and put to silence the base charges of "disloyalty," "opposition to the government," and of "cruelty and injustice to the freedman," which have been so constantly fulminated at the North against them. The quiet with which they have borne their grief, the earnestness with which they have struggled against pecuniary ruin, their submission under the aggravated forms of political and personal injustice, and the readiness with which they have obeyed the laws and supported the government, have nailed these base falsehoods to the counter, and Northern sympathy and a purpose to free us from our thraldom are springing up everywhere. Black and portentous as the clouds are, which yet lower over us, we still hope for a better day!

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

We are glad to perceive that our friends in many of the counties are moving in the matter of appointing Delegates to the approaching Conservative Convention, to be held on the 5th. of Februrary. We trust that, in no county, will there be an omission to appoint, or, if circumstances should possibly prevent the holding of a county meeting, let Conservative gentlemen constitute themselves delegates any way.

Let us have a grand rally of the true people of North Carolina,—a genuine representative body of North Carolina sentiment.—We doubt not that our Executive Committee will see to it that accommodation shall be arranged for delegates, however large the number.

MR. HODNETT.—This gentleman, one of the delegates from Caswell, was during the war and since one of the most uncompromising, outspoken and consistent Union men in the State. He is an independent, honest man, acts not from impulse, but from the sincere convictions of his own mind, and, hence, cannot be a Radical.—His independent course has drawn down upon him the ire of the Standard, the Radical paper in this city, which, we learn, reads him out of the Standard party. Mr. H. will doubtless be obliged to that paper, if it will state that he never belonged to the "black and tan" party, and moreover, that, although a Union man, he has never once forgotten that he is a whiteman and a citizen of North Carolina!

There is one thing Gen. Meade cannot do. He cannot take the moneys of Georgia to pay the hungry patriots who thirst after the spoils of office, for these are deposited in New York, and the Courts must pass upon the question before they will be surrendered.

DIGNITY AND RESPECTABILITY.

We do not object, in any wise, to any deliberative body determining to preserve its own dignity or respectability, or such a portion of it as it may possess. But when a body takes them by the forelock, to preserve what has not been assailed, it is very natural to conclude that its dignity and respectability are rather under-foted and require bolstering. We regret, therefore, on its own account, the lesson very plainly taught by the Convention in its action in reference to the Press on Thursday last.

True dignity and respectability need no defence, for they are never assailed, and if the Convention had taken time to think, it would not have resorted to so silly an attack upon the freedom of the Press, as its resolution very plainly indicates.

What was the offence of the Sentinel Reporter? Why, simply, in recording the action of the members of the body, in order to give the public a correct idea of the course and positions of each, most of whom are totally unknown to the general public, he designated the few colored members in the body, by giving their names and then the term negro appended, as a matter of information. The term, itself, is neither disrespectful nor degrading to a colored man, but simply indicates his race. No other body of a similar character in the South has sought to protect its dignity or character, by so puerile a resort.

The resolution in itself, however ridiculous and unnecessary, would not have been noticed by us, perhaps, but for the fact that the Sentinel was made the special object of attack during its discussion. And it is on this account that we reproduce the final vote on the resolution, and put upon record again those members of the Convention, who deem it disrespectful to the Convention and its members, for a Reporter, when distinguishing the black from the white members, to append to the names of the blacks the term negro. We commend the list to the attention of the constituents especially of those members among the Ayes designated by capitals. The resolution adopted is as follows:

"Mr. Abbott presented the following resolution:

Resolved, That no Reporter for any newspaper be allowed upon this floor, who treats the Convention, or any of its members, with any disrespect, but that they shall, in case of offence in this respect, be excluded from the floor of the Hall and from the galleries

The following was the final vote:

AYES.—Abbot, ANDREWS, Ashley, Aydlott, Barnes, Benbow, Blume, Bryan, Carey, Carter, Candler, Chillson, COLGROVE, CONGLETON, Cox, DUCKWORTH, Eppes, ETHERIDGE, Fisher, Forkner, FRANKLIN, FRENCH, of Bladen, FRENCH, of Rockingham, French, of Chowan, FULLINGS, Gahagan, Galloway, Garrett, George, Graham, Grant, Guily, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, Hay, HAYES, of Robeson, Hayes, of Halifax, Heaton, Highsmith, Hoffler, Hood, Hyman, ING, JONES, of Caldwell, JONES, of Washington, King, of Lenoir, Kinney, Lafin, Lee, Logan, Long, Mann, Mayo, McDONALD, of Chatham, McDonald, of Moore, MORTON, Mullican, Murphy, Nance, Newsom, PATRICK, Parks, Petree, Pierson, POOL, Ragland, Ray, READ, Renfrow, Rhodes, 15th, Robbins, RODMAN, Rose, Smith, Stilwell, Sweet, Taylor, Teague, Tourges, Trogden, Tucker, Turner, Watts, Welker and Williams.

NAYS.—Messrs Bradley, Daniel, Durham, Ellis, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Northampton, Hare, Harris, of Franklin, Hobbs, Hodnett, Lennon, McCubbins, Moore, Nicholson, Parker, Sanderlin, and Williams, of Sampson.

Mr. Durham then submitted the following protest:

"As the resolution is a step in restricting the liberty of the Press, and keeping information from the people, we protest against its passage (Signed)

P. DURHAM,
J. W. GRAHAM,
P. HODNETT,
JAS. R. ELLIS,
J. B. HARE,
ALEXANDER WILLIAMS,
THOS. SANDERLIN,
J. S. MCCUBBINS,
HAYNES LENNON."

PERVERSION.—The Standard, of yesterday, we learn, totally changes and perverts the character of the telegraphic dispatch, sent by the Agent of the Associated Press, from Montgomery, announcing the action of leading citizens of Alabama, who have been in conference in that City. This it something entirely unusual, which has never hitherto been done by any journal in the country, North or South. However obnoxious may be the character of a telegram, it is a matter of right and of virtual contract with the Telegraph Company that, if used at all, it shall be given in the words of the Agent transmitting it. Otherwise, it ceases to be a bona fide dispatch, and is simply a a fabrication. The dispatch referred to represents the leading citizens of Alabama as counselling the people to abstain from voting on the Constitution in that State. The Standard's manufactured telegram represents them as advising hostility to "reconstruction." The genuine telegram has it that the "30th. of January was recommended to the people of the State as a day of fasting and prayer to Almighty God to deliver the people of Alabama from the horrors of negro dominion." The Standard bogus telegram puts these words, instead of "negro dominion," into the mouth of the Alabama Conservatives, viz: "from the horrors of equality before the law and of a restoration of the State to the Union!" The Standard has the same right to alter the market quotations that it has to change the character of any other telegraphic matter. The arrangement of the captions to the telegrams, of course, is a matter in which the journalists may exercise their discretion.

THE "black and tan" Radical paper of this city, as was to have been expected, endorses the action of the Convention fully in regard to Reporters, but fails disingenuously to specify the precise offense of our Reporter. Its readers would infer, from its remarks, that our Reporter, who is incapable of knowingly insulting any gentleman or body of men, had been guilty of a high misdemeanor. Whereas, he has only followed the Dictionary, and the usage even of the Radical Congress, and called "the gentlemen of African descent" by the proper appellative of their race—negroes.

THE STANTON AFFAIR.

Our readers are aware that, on the morning after the adoption of the resolution by the Senate, that the reasons of the President, for the suspension of Mr. Stanton, were insufficient, Gen. Grant, without consultation with the President, left the War Office and delivered up the key to the Adjutant General, to be delivered to Mr. Stanton. Mr. S. quietly walked in and resumed the duties of his office. His first act, it is said, was to draw his pay for the time of his suspension, nearly $3,000. About two hours after Mr. S. had possession, General Grant officially informed the President that he had vacated the office, on account of the resolution of the Senate.

There is nothing in this whole transaction to produce the excitement which it has occasioned at Washington and at other points. As the U. S. Senate is now composed, it is of no practical value whether the Tenure-of office bill is constitutional or not, or whether Mr. Stanton is Secretary of War or not, except that the country, has been somewhat the gainer by the wholesome reforms and retrenchment, which it is said Gen. Grant has introduced. For it is plain that it is not within the constitutional power of the President to put any man in the place of Mr. Stanton, any better or less objectionable than he is, who could get the approval of the Senate.

The National Intelligencer, however, states some facts in regard to the course of Gen. Grant, which are material and which the public can not lightly estimate. That paper asserts that Gen. Grant was distinctly pledged to President Johnson for some time, and up to Saturday last, that, in the event the Senate refused to recognize the suspension of Mr. Stanton, he, Gen. Grant, would resign as Acting Secretary, in time to enable the President to supply the vacancy, or let a mandamus be issued against him to surrender the office. As late even as Monday, Gen. Grant was pledged to let the President hear from him, but the General was silent. On Monday evening the resolution passed. Mr. Stanton entered the office on Tuesday morning, Gen. Grant having surrendered it, and two hours after Gen. Grant informed the President that he had vacated the office!

YESTERDAY.

The proceedings of the so-called Convention, on yesterday, were unmarked by any special interest.

The unnecessary, unusual and expensive office of Sergeant-at-Arms was created, in order to fill the clamorous demand for "crumbs."

Mr. Rodman introduced an Ordinance, looking to relief for the people, but we have not had the opportunity to examine its provisions critically.

The admirable series of resolutions, offered by Mr. Durham, express the sentiments of nine-tenths of the white men of North Carolina. They are timely, well conceived and well expressed.

PEOPLE OF THE NORTH, ARE YOU FREE? ARISE AND SPEAK.

Freemen of the North! Know that the clutch of usurpation is at the throat of your Ministers of Justice; that your treacherous servants, determined to destroy your Constitution, defended by your Chief Magistrate, have desperately resolved upon abnegating the legislative branch of your Government, entrusted to their perfidious hands, and in order to demolish all restraint of treason, are about to destroy all the departments of Government, even their own, and, lifting your liberties from your sovereign shoulders, to lay all at the feet of a military despot.—Know, people of the great free North, that your chains are forged; that the bayonets, as it were, are sharpened, the muskets charged, the orders written, that are to mete out to each one of you what liberty, what property, what life he shall retain.—Behold, at your firesides the apparition of the guard for a midnight arrest; in your places of worship, the armed censor of your prayers; in your fields, at your work tables, on the high roads, the snaky and skulking detective. Listen! You may hear the drum, as it drops in at your startled ear, the palsy that thickens your yet free tongue. Well tell you that the Supreme Court is to be struck down, that the equal balance of the Three Great Departments is swaying from its equilibrium; that the great tripod of the Republic is to be broken up; that from your political temples your betrayers are banishing your Gods, and from the Genius of your freedom are wrenching her inviolable sceptre. That a few wretches, drunk upon irresponsible power, loathsome with guilt, hideous with blood, and mad with lust, may riot in your hails of power, through the degradation of the South, your liberties are to be destroyed, your Constitution subverted, and your name dishonored among nations forever.

Arise, freemen, in your fiery majesty!—Consume with the lightning of your powerful rebuke this devilish combination of perfidy and greed. Shake off the fatal incredulity which lays you supine in the midst of peril, and let not the sun go down ere you have shaken the earth with your mighty tread. Gather, in every hamlet in the land, from Eastport to Astoria, and send up to Heaven the shout of your indignation. The winding-sheet of your freedom is woven and its coffin made. Shall it die and be buried?—Nat. Intel.

THE VACANT JUDGESHIP.—The judicial ermine vacated by the resignation of Judge Fowle, has been begging around in all portions of the State, but no one worthy of the station has been found to accept it. The last offer was made to Daniel B. Baker, Esq., of this city, to whom the Governor formally tendered the position for the second time, yesterday. Mr. Baker declined the appointment. There is certainly no incentive to a man who honors his profession and upholds the dignity of the civil law, to accept, at this time, a seat upon the Bench, whose judgments may be set aside by the bayonets of a military despotism, and when a law is even now before an arbitrary Congress which will vacate this and other offices, and leave but a wisp of straw in the hand that should have grasped the sword of justice.—Wil. Star.

THE REVOLUTION.—The political revolutionary proceedings at Washington have hitherto been bloodless; but there is quite enough of violent and rancorous impulses there to burst out into bloodly collisions at any time. The proceedings tend to a convulsion. It may be free from blood; but it must have the nature of convulsion.—Things have gone too far to stop short of such a denouement. Every day brings its excitement, and so it will probably go on until the grant conclusion wrought by a combination of the worst passions and most corrupt practices that ever cursed a nation.—Rich. Dispatch.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

FRIDAY, Jan. 17th., 1868.

Convention came to order at 11 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lennon.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

It being announced that the Assistant Secretary was unable to attend, by reason of sickness, Mr. Logan Harris, of Rutherford, was, on motion of Mr. Welker, appointed to act temporarily.

Mr. Rodman's motion, of yesterday, to reconsider the vote upon the passage of the resolution creating the office of Sergeant-at-arms, in order to allow Mr. Hodnett, of Caswell, an opportunity to speak, being renewed,

Mr. H. arose and said that as he did not wish to trouble the House, he hoped the gentleman would withdraw his motion; and it was accordingly withdrawn.

Messrs. Holt, of Orange, and Merritt, of Person, presented themselves, were sworn in and took their seats.

Mr. Abbott, of New Hanover, moved that an election of Sergeant-at-arms be at once proceeded with, and he nominated J. W. Peck, of Wilmington, therefor.

Mr. Lillis, of Catawba, said that, in order to save expense, he offered the name of J. T. Ball, the Assistant Doorkeeper, who could discharge all the necessary duties.

Mr. Watts, of Martin, by request of Mr. Ball, withdrew the nomination.

Mr. Moore, of Granville, nominated G. J. Rogers, of Wake.

A viva voce vote being taken, resulted as follows: Peck 82, Ball 1, Rogers 2.

Mr. Peck was declared duly elected and directed to come forward, take the oath and enter upon the duties of the office.

Mr. Sweet, of Craven, from the Select Committee on Rules, submitted a report and moved that it be read in whole and passed upon seriatim, and that, except where a vote is demanded, or an amendment offered, each rule shall be declared adopted, without a formal vote. Adopted.

The Rules were read. Articles 19, 23, 24 and 29, providing a call of the previous question, were objected to by Messrs. Graham, of Orange, and Durham, of Cleveland.

The question being put, the objections were not sustained.

Mr. Rich, of Pitt, moved that no one, except delegates, reporters, &c., &c., be allowed to come in the body of the House, except on invitation of a member.

Mr. Ashley introduced the following, as a substitute:

Ordered, That the Doorkeepers be directed to allow no persons, except members and officers, to come upon the floor, except by invitation of one of the members of the Convention; and in no case shall any such person be allowed to come within the bar, except invited by vote of the Convention.

After some debate, the resolution was finally modified and adopted as follows:

Ordered, That no persons except members and officers of the Convention, be allowed to come upon the floor, except by invitation of one of the members of the Convention.

Mr. Heaton submitted the report of the Committee of Sixteen, appointed to consider the best mode of proceeding to frame a Constitution, as follows:

"The Committee appointed to consider and report upon the best mode of proceedings to frame a Constitution and civil government, according to the acts of Congress, respectfully report:

Resolved, That standing Committees be appointed by the President, to report on each of the following subjects:

1st. On Preamble and Bill of Rights.
2nd. On Governor and other necessary State officers.
3d. On Legislature.
4th. On Judicial Department.
5th. On the Finances.
6th. On Internal Improvement.
7th. On Counties, Cities, Towns and Villages.
8th. On Corporations other than Municipal.
9th. On Punishments and Penal Institutions.
10th. On Militia.
11th. On Education, Common Schools and University.
12th. On Homesteads.

The Committee also recommend that the different standing Committees, as named, shall consist of thirteen members."

The report of the Committee was concurred in.

Mr. Heaton moved that the usual number of copies be printed for the use of the Convention. Carried.

Mr Graham moved that the same number of the Rules of Order be also printed.—Carried.

Mr. Ashley offered the following resolution:

Whereas, The Committee of 16 was directed to consider and report the best practicable plan for establishing a Constitution and civil government, loyal to the Union, and whereas the report now presented only provides a plan for the establishment of a Constitution, entirely ignoring anything like a plan for the adoption and carrying into effect that Constitution: Therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee be instructed, as soon as practicable, to consider and report upon the best method of carrying into effect the Constitution establishing a civil government in North Carolina.—Laid over under the rules.

Mr. French, of Chowan, called up a resolution, previously offered by Mr. Jones, of Washington, directing the President to inform Gen. Canby of the permanent organization of the Convention; and it was adopted.

Mr. Forkner offered the following resolution:

Resolved by the delegates of the people of North Carolina, in Convention assembled, That the Secretary of State be directed to furnish each delegate of this Convention with a copy of the Constitution adopted by the Convention of 1865 and '66.

Mr. Tourges moved that the words "the Secretary of State" be stricken out, and "Provisional Secretary of State" inserted!!

Adopted.

J. W. Hood, (negro,) of Cumberland, suggested that it would be better to "request" rather than "direct" the Secretary of State to furnish the copies; which suggestion was adopted; and

The resolution, as amended, passed.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, offered the following:

Resolved, That a Committee of eight, to consist of one member from each Judicial District, be raised, whose duty it shall be to devise and report some plan to relieve the people of the pressure of debt under which they labor, and which must, unless some remedy be afforded, result in general bankruptcy, and thus add very greatly, not only to present general distress, but operate to the serious injury of all our industrial pursuits.

Mr. Rodman offered an Ordinance as a substitute; which was accepted by Mr. McDonald.

(Mr. Rodman's ordinance provides for a stay of all debts, executions, and judgments, until the Constitution is ratified. It is meant to apply especially to debts, &c., prior to May 20, 1867. Executors, Administrators, or public officers, with their sureties, are not relieved by the operation of this ordinance from their liabilities.)

Mr. Tourges moved that the whole matter be referred to the Committee of the Whole, and made the special order for Tuesday next, 12 o'clock. Carried.

Mr. Durham, of Cleaveland, offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That it is the sincere desire of the people of North Carolina to restore the State to her Constitutional relations with the Federal government, at the earliest day practicable, upon terms just and honorable, both to the government of the United States and to the State.

2. That, recognizing the helpless condition of North Carolina, and the power of the Federal government to force the acceptance of the terms of Reconstruction, proposed by Congress, it is, nevertheless, the sense of this Convention, that the measures, known as the Reconstruction acts, are unconstitutional, unwise, unjust and oppressive, subversive of the rights and liberties of eight millions of people, and calculated to hasten and complete the destruction of that wise system of government, which, when faithfully adhered to, secured so much happiness and prosperity to the American people.

3. That the white and black races are distinct by nature, and that any and all efforts to abolish or abridge such distinction, and to degrade the whites to the level of the black race, are crimes against the civilization of the age and against God.

4. That the Government of the United States, and of the several States, were instituted by white men, and that, while the lives, liberty and property of the black race should be protected by just laws, these Governments ought to be controlled by white men only.

4. That we appeal to the sense of justice of the masses of the Northern people, to remove from the intelligent people of the Southern States the degradation now heaped upon them, and to consider the dire results to the whole country, if the policy of depriving eight millions of people of the services of their statesmen, disfranchising intelligent whites and transferring political power into the hands of blacks, shall be continued.

The President decided that the resolutions would lie over one day under the rules; and then

On motion, the Convention adjourned.

THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES IN DEATH IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,

MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT

FOR THE STATE OF

NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA,

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than one-THIRTEENTH of all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and less than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "C," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is sixteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a "STOCK COMPANY," gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

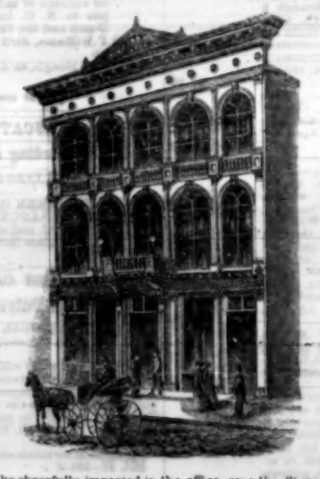
ABOVE LIABILITIES.



THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION, AND A VERY IMPORTANT FACT. HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR. HAS 43,000 MEMBERS.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18, 1868.

Office of the Sentinel:—On the old "Register" row, next to the Court House.

Convention.—The Daily Sentinel, with the proceedings of the Radical Convention, will be sent regularly for $1 for a month, or during the Convention, if its session does not greatly exceed that time.

To Subscribers.—Several of our friends have remitted us monies for new subscriptions, according to our last year's terms. In every case we give such subscribers full credit for the amount sent, according to our new terms.

New Advertisements.—Perry vs. Eldreth, et als: E. F. Foster, C. M. E., Ashe County.

Great Invention—Wonderful Corn Sheller: Douglas Bell, Fayetteville St.

Gray, Executor, vs. Moore, et als: S. S. Jackson, C. M. E., Randolph County.

Mayor's Court.—Anthony Jackson, 40th U. S. Infantry, charged with being concerned in the murder of Anderson Selby, colored, in December, 1867, was returned to the Superior Court.

A number of U. S. soldiers were up before the Mayor, for various offences, on yesterday, and by him turned over to the military authorities.

Lecture by Bishop Atkinson.—We are pleased to learn that Bishop Atkinson has accepted the invitation of the Young Men's Christian Association to deliver a Lecture in this City, in furtherance of its charitable objects. It will be delivered during the first week in February, at which time the Bishop will be in Raleigh on a Diocesan visit.

Religious Notice.—Rev. Thomas H. Pritchard will preach in the Baptist Church, to-morrow (Sunday) morning and night.

Sargent's Dramatic Troupe.—The Wilmington papers have spoken in such high terms of the merits of this Dramatic Company, that it is safe to predict that their representations will be received with equal favor in this City. The company is described as possessing the best talent, decidedly, of any Stock Company in the South.

It will commence a series of entertainments, for six nights, at Tucker Hall, on Tuesday evening, instead of Monday, as heretofore announced. A limited number of season tickets may be obtained at the Box-Office, upon prompt application.

What Constitutes a Negro.—The outraged and insulted negro delegate, Hood, from Cumberland, on Thursday, denied that there was a negro on the floor of the Convention, insisted that the word negro had no significance as to color, but could only be used in a reproachful and degrading sense, and he further declared that no man on that floor knew where the term negro originated, since it was not found in ancient history, either inspired or profane.

In view of the fact that our Reporter was the object of the terrible wrath of the Radical portion of the so-called Convention, and in anticipation of the suppression of the Sentinel, by that delectable body, we deem it proper to give the following definition from Webster, the great Yankee Lexicographer:

NEGRO, a. [It. and Sp. negro, black, from L. niger.]

A native or descendant of the black race of men in Africa. The word is never applied to the (swarthy or olive-colored inhabitants of the northern coast of Africa, but to the southern race of men who are quite black.

Cotton.—We authorized to state that there are parties in this city who will purchase all the Cotton that may be brought to the market. They will give as good prices as the quotations will justify.

Arrested.—It has been stated to us that a tobacco wagoner, traveling through the up country, selling his tobacco, took with him his wife, and, as a prevention, took his gun or pistol along with him, and that at Charlotte he was arrested by the police for a violation of Gen Sickles' order, prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons, and sent to this Post under arrest. We think there must be some mistake about this, as we conceive, under the circumstances, the design and purpose of the order were not violated. We note the rumor to get at the facts.

The Register, of this City, also thinks that to designate the colored race by the word negro is an "offensive epithet," at which a grave "Convention" should take offence. Rals: "Every one to his liking," as the old woman said when she kissed her cow.

Ethnological.—A friend suggests that as Hood, from Cumberland, is so ignorant about his own race, as to assert that the term negro is not to be found in ancient sacred or profane history, he shall call upon Font Taylord for a disquisition on the subject.—The idea is a good one. Font will lend him the lecture he lately delivered in Tupper's church, but, really, Font is too good an Ethnologist to sustain the learned delegate from Ayr—Cumberland.

The Reward of Apostacy.—C. J. Rogers, of Wake, received two votes for Sergeant-at-arms on yesterday.

Registered Letters.—The Post Office Department has adopted a new and very efficient plan for registering letters containing money. The expense is increased, but, where the amount is worth it, it would be better for all our friends to register their letters when they send any cash, except where they are convenient to the Express or to a Post Office that issues money orders on the Raleigh office.

THE SITUATION.

Mr. Stanton was at the War Department at half-past nine o'clock this morning. He issued orders as Secretary, and was so recognized by Adjutant General Townsend and all the other officials of the War Department.

A number of Senators and Representatives called and had interviews with Mr. Stanton. Major General Pope was closeted with him for several hours.

A New York delegation called to see Mr. Stanton, and to one of them he remarked, "I will remain in the War Office until I am forcibly ejected. I do not intend to resign."

Mr. Stanton has not as yet issued any special order to the officers and employees of the War Department announcing his having assumed control. He announced that any order he might issue would be given to the press by General Townsend, but, none having been given by General T., it is presumed that none has been made public.

To-day President Johnson issued instructions that no communication with the War Department be sent or received through Mr. Stanton, who would under no circumstances be recognized by the President as Secretary of War, or admitted as a member of his Cabinet.

There was an informal meeting of the Cabinet to-day, lasting some two hours.—All the members were present. While the Cabinet were in session, General Grant and Lieut. Gen. Sherman called on the President, and had a brief interview with him, the nature of which did not transpire.

The greatest secresy prevailed in reference to the matters discussed at the Cabinet, and the many members of the press waiting in the ante-rooms were not overburdened with intelligence relative thereto.

There was no undue excitement either at the White House or at the War Department. The President had many visitors, including Senators and Congressmen, and with receiving them and attending the Cabinet meeting was kept quite busy until the dinner hour. —Wash. Express, 16th.

Murder in Currituck County, N. C.—Mr. George Ferrell, who lives at Indian Ridge, Currituck County, N. C., about four miles from New Bridge, visited Nortolk on Thursday last with a drove of cattle, which he sold in the course of Friday and Saturday, and having made some purchases, he left for his home, in company with his son, aged about ten years, on Sunday morning.

The next we hear of him is, that his body was found, on Monday morning, near the house of Sol Jones, (who keeps a drinking establishment at New Bridge,) with his throat cut from ear to ear.

Our informant states that since the murder was committed, Jones has been missing from his house, and consequently suspicion points to him as the murderer.

It is presumed that the murder was committed on Sunday night. The house of Sol Jones, near which the body was found, is about 30 miles from Norfolk, and could easily have been reached by Ferrell on Sunday night, he having left Nortolk in the morning. Our informant states that Ferrell was a powerful man, and must have been asleep or in liquor when put to death, otherwise no one man could have committed the deed. His occupation was that of a farmer.

Ferrell was a married man, with a wife and one child living. He is about thirty five years of age, and is represented as being an unusually quiet, peaceable man when not in liquor. He was a member of the 56th, regiment of N. C. Troops, and served with credit during the entire war.—Norfolk Journal.

In a fix.—We heard a ludicrous story of an individual in a Western county, whose election as a delegate to the Convention was duly announced by Gen. Canby's order convening that body. Being much elated at the intelligence, for up to that time he had not regarded his election as certain, he repaired in all haste to Raleigh, proceeded to invest himself with a new suit of clothes—such a suit, perhaps, as Gaston wore in 1835—so as to enable him to make an appearance suitable to the dignity of his functions as a Constitution maker, (!) when he was suddenly thrown into the greatest consternation at learning that Gen. Canby had changed the return and given the seat to another. He immediately sent a dispatch, or a message, to his successful rival, informing him of the change things had taken, and to acquaint him with the fact that he had bought a suit of Constitution clothes for which he now had no use, and that he hoped they would fit him, and that he would take them off his hands. Further our informant saith not, but we hope his successful rival came to his relief and that he went on his way rejoicing.—Old North State.

The New Senator from Ohio.—The telegraph informs us that Hon. Allen G. Thurman has been elected United States Senator from Ohio. In the State Senate the vote stood: Thurman, 19; B. F. Wade, 18. In the House: Thurman, 55; Wade, 49.—Judge Thurman was the Democratic candidate for Governor at the late election, but was defeated by Gen. Hayes, the Republican candidate, by a little less than three thousand votes. He is a lawyer of great ability and of high personal character. He has for the last thirty years been a prominent champion of the Democratic party of Ohio in political discussions, and conducted the late canvass for Governor with marked talent and skill. Mr. Thurman is a nephew of the Hon. William Allen, who formerly represented Ohio in the United States Senate.

For Man and Beast.—It is stated that the reason why Butler "put up" at the Ballard House was that he had heard that the Messrs. Ballard keep an "old Virginia tavern." The well known sign of such establishments is——"Entertainment for Man and Beast."—Rich. Exam.

The Sentinel proposes to hang the pillars of the State Capitol in mourning. Plenty of "sombre hue" in the Gorilla Convention, without buying mourning goods. Its record will be black enough.—Wil. Star.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Saturday Morning Dispatches.

CONGRESS.

Washington, Jan. 17, P. M.

The Senate was not in session.

House.—The Ways and Means Committee reported the anti-contraction bill, with a recommendation of non-concurrence with the Senate. Adopted.

The vote on the Reconstruction bill was postponed to Monday, with a session to-morrow for debate only. The discussion was resumed.

Mr. Brooks made a strong speech in opposition. Alluding to the Radical programme, he said:

"We do not intend to be ruled by any such Government as that, and the process of legislation, by which it is to be reached, will be undone by the people. Many of the opposition members are acting in open defiance of the expressed will of the their constituency."

Referring to the Supreme Court bill Mr. B. said: "You may overthrow Andrew Johnson; you may overthrow the Executive; you may turn whole States into Hayties, Jamaicas and Africas; but when you throw yourselves against that bulwark of the Constitution, your puny arms will shake and quiver, and be blasted in the first blow you strike against it."

Mr. Hubbard, of Connecticut, followed in bitter denunciation of the bill and the emasculation of the Supreme Court, and denounced the proposed legislation as felony against the States. He would not say that Congress was infamous, but this bill was more than infamous. He gave notice that should Grant accept the law, and carry it out, as proposed, he would break his back before the people, and would forfeit all the honor he had won. This bill and all the others were got up for Africanizing the States, thus republicanizing them, and making use of them to neutralize the majorities at the North.

The debate proceeded—the Republicans evidently on the defensive throughout.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Jan. 17, M.

Last night's session of the House was devoted to the discussion of the new Reconstruction Bill, with several angry colloquies.

Col. Mann, Assessor of the Internal Revenue, at Mobile, is here, urging changes in the cotton regulations, whereby it is claimed that annoyances connected with the use of tags may be lessened.

The Senate has confirmed Egbert H. Grandin as U. S. Attorney for the Southern District of Alabama.

Washington, Jan. 17, P. M.

The Supreme Court was crowded, to-day, to hear ex parte the McCardle case. The point argued was the advancement of the case on the docket.

Judge Sharkey stated that there are several persons in Mississippi, whom an early decision of this case may save from hanging.

Howard was on the floor of the House, to-day, consulting with Elliott, Chairman of the Freedmen's Committee.

Gov. Flanders, of Louisiana, is here.

The regular Cabinet meeting was held to-day. Stanton did not appear.

The Military Committee, in view of the unsettled condition of the South, has decided to defer action for reducing the army.

Persons, who have conversed with Grant, say he is very guarded in his language regarding the pending Reconstruction bill.

The Supreme Court of New York divorced Belle Boyd from her husband, to-day.

Hon. W. T. Hamilton is elected United States Senator from Maryland.

A negro has commenced a suit against the managers of an opera in Buffalo, N. Y. for ejecting a negro and his wife from seats.

SOUTH CAROLINA CONVENTION.

Charleston, Jan. 17, P. M.

Parker introduced an ordinance, establishing a Homestead law, exempting $2,500 worth of property from levy or seizure.

Hurley proposed an ordinance to declare all outstanding obligations for the purchase of slaves null and void. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Langley introduced a resolution declaring that the public good required that all ideas of confiscation or further disfranchisement must be abandoned. Laid on the table.

The ayes and nays being called on a motion to re-consider, it was lost by 61 to 46—16 being absent.

Gov. Orr, by invitation, addressed the Convention to-night.

GEORGIA MATTERS—ANOTHER REMOVAL.

Augusta, Jan. 7, P. M.

Gen. Meade to-day issued an order removing the Comptroller of Georgia, for declining to respect the orders of, and to co-operate with, the General Commanding. Capt. Charles Wheaton, 33rd. Infantry, is ordered to assume the duties of the office.

MISSISSIPPI CONVENTION.

Jackson, Jan. 17, P. M.

The following were referred to appropriate Committees: A resolution to appoint a special Committee to inquire into the propriety of removing the capital of the State to some more loyal and convenient place; resolution authorizing the legislature to provide for repairing the Mississippi Levee; resolution accepting the civil and political equality of all men, and never to countenance the secession of the State from the U. S.

A resolution was adopted, providing for a Committee of five to receive names of persons for Congress to have their disabilities removed.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868.

The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

The Faculty is composed of five male Professors and seven lady Teachers.

Everything is new. Our musical instruments, including Piano Organ, Harp and Guitar, are of the finest quality.

Special attention paid to thoroughness in the English Course.

Terms MODERATE and ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the south. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. Our patronage must be educated.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.

The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 800 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Fine Timber has been cut off.

The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular saw, run by a Jonvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed. There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and

[A dying mother presented her only son with a beautiful pocket Bible as her last gift, on the first blank page of which an elder sister inscribed the following:]

Remember her, who gave thee this,
When other days shall come,
When one who had thine earliest kiss
sleeps in her narrow home.
Remember 'twas a mother gave
The gift to one she'd die to save!

That mother sought a pledge of love,
The holiest for her son;
And from the gifts of God above
She chose a goodly one.
She chose for her beloved boy,
The source of light and life and joy;

And bade him keep the gift that when
The parting hour should come,
They might have hope to meet again,
In an eternal home.
She said his faith in this would be
Sweet incense to her memory.

And should the scoffer in his pride,
Laugh that fond faith to scorn,
And bid him cast the pledge aside,
That he from youth had borne,
She bade him pause and ask his breast
If she or he had loved him best

A parent's blessing on her son,
Goes with this holy thing;
The love that would retain the one,
Must to the other cling.
Remember 'tis no idle toy,
A mother's gift! remember, boy!

THE NEW RECONSTRUCTION BILL —MINORITY REPORT.

The following is the minority report upon the reconstruction bill pending in Congress:

The undersigned, a minority of the Committee of Reconstruction, so-called, submit, among others, the following as some of their reasons in opposition to the bill:

1st. That a Congress ex parte is asked (first section) to abrogate and destroy all civil and State governments in ten States, four of them—as follows: Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina and Georgia—being of the original thirteen that started the Government and created the Constitution, while four others of that thirteen (making eight in all) have just been demonstrating through their popular elections that they recognize these civil State governments, and guarantee, as far as the popular voice, their preservation as legal state governments. Self-government and representation are cardinal principles of a republic, and ordained in our Federal Constitution, but the section ignores both, and robs ten States of this Union and twelve millions of inhabitants of all protection from the Judiciary or Executive branches of the Government, while dooming them to a military despotism.

2d. That a Congress thus representing but a part of the people, and that part now in a minority, even if a full Congress, is a parliamentary sense of that word, would be but one of the three great branches of this Government, with no right and no power to invalidate or to deny the recognition of the Executive or Judicial power, as asserted in the bill. The Executive or Judiciary has as much right to proclaim or predicate that Congress shall not be recognized as Congress has to enact for the Executive and the Judiciary; both are as much the Government and the creation of the Constitution as the House or Senate; and the Executive, elected by the whole people, better represents the principles of popular government than a Senate—a mere arbiter—the creation of the States.

3. That the invalidation or nullification of the Executive and Judicial power in ten States is not only an abolition of the Federal Constitution, but in direct conflict with the great military acts of 1792 and 1795, and of March 3, 1807, putting the army and navy and military of the United States in certain cases at the disposal of the President; also in conflict with the fundamental judiciary act of 1789, and also in conflict with act 4, section 5, of the Constitution, which, while guaranteeing to every State a republican form of government, also guarantees, on application of the civil authorities of the States, protection against domestic violence, such as contemplated in this bill.

4. That the second and third sections are in utter violation of the Constitution, article 2, section 2, which declares the President to be Commander in Chief of the United States, inasmuch as the General of the army is authorized to be commander in-chief, and to remove by his orders alone any or all officers of the army of the United States, independent of the Constitution and people's elected commander-in-chief, and thus investing a General of the army with this supreme dictatorship, is as if in solemn mockery set forth to recognize civil governments in form.

5. That the whole act is revolutionary and incendiary in arraying Congress, but one branch of the Government, against the co-ordinate branches, in all respects the constitutional equals of Congress, and in some respects the constitutional superiors of Congress, and thereby calculated, if not intended, to involve the whole country in commotion and civil strife; the end of which no human eye can foresee.

[Signed]

JAMES BROOKS, of New York.
JAMES B. BECK, of Kentucky.

THE REVOLUTIONARY CRISIS AT WASHINGTON.—We live in revolutionary times. The recent proceedings of the radical party in Congress show that we are still in the midst of a revolution. "Old Thad Stevens" is one of the master spirits of the age, as was Hampden in England in his day, and as, in their turn, were Robespierre and Marat in France. The work of transforming the republic into a military despotism advances with startling rapidity. We have, or are to have, the national Executive reduced to an automaton, the Supreme Court reduced to a nullity, the head of the army reduced to a mere servant of the radical faction, the States reduced to a mixed despotism of bayonets and negro semi-barbarians; and all this in bold defiance of the constitution, the pledges of Congress itself and the will of the people. We may well ask the question, therefore, what comes next, or where will be the end of these audacious revolutionary doings of the rampant radical party in power? We can only answer that it is abundantly evident that this party do not intend to stick at trifles or hesitate in any scheme to maintain themselves in power, even to the proclamation, if deemed expedient, that the republic is dead and that the empire has taken its place.—N. Y. Herald.

BUREAU STOCK RISING.—General O. O. Howard, the head of the Freedmen's Bureau, is in luck. He has in the course of construction in Washington a three-story brick residence, which is to cost $30,000. Stables are being erected for the use of horses with which Uncle Sam furnishes him. The dwelling will have all the modern conveniences. The General is a favorite of the Radicals. He is not behind the worst of them in admiration of a black skin. He has good cause, we can now see, for being in favor of the continuance of the Bureau.

Jan. 1—124-tf BRIGGS & DODD.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 104.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 26th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th day of December 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 20th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

Paragraph V of the same order is modified as follows:

SUITS ON BOND DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1863, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

Paragraph VII of the same order is modified as follows:

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated; and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions for debt only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in the Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 33, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District, County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 33, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

INFERIOR COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the Judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the Judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special terms of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the State Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the Judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the (poll) tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due: provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
